Numb. 10817.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday March 19, to Tuesday March 22, 1768.

Copenhagen, March 2.

MR. Titley, who for Forty Years had reſided here as His Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter and Envoy Extraordinary, but who had retired for ſome Time from publick Buſineſs to a Place called Lyngbye near this City, died there on the 27th of laſt Month, as univerſally lamented as he had always been deſervedly beloved and reſpected; and on the 8th inſtant was interred: His Funeral, agreeable to his own Directions, was attended only by the Miniſters of the Council, the Grand Veneur, and Mr. Gunning, His Britannick Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary.

Copenhagen, March 5. An Ordonance is juſt publiſhed, prohibiting the Importation of all foreign Stone or Earthen Ware into the Dutchies of Sleſwig and Holſtein, under the Pain of Confiſcation.

Copenhagen, March 8. The Marſhal Holck was inveſted with the Order of Dannebrogge on the 5th inſtant.

Vienna, March 2. The Earthquake, which we had here on the 27th of laſt Month, was not ſo ſenſibly felt at Presbourg as in this City; but, as it was ſtronger at Newſtadt, about three Poſts from hence, in the Road to Italy, it is imagined it came to us from that Part of the World. There is ſcarce a Houſe at Newſtadt that has not ſuffered more or leſs, and the Royal Military Academy there has been ſo much damaged, that it is computed the Repairs will amount to 30,000 Florins at leaſt. There is no Account of any Lives having been loſt. It was computed by the Aſtronomer of the Jeſuits College here, who was at that Inſtant in the Obſervatory, that the Earthquake laſted with us Thirty Seconds, in which Time, he ſays, he felt more than an Hundred Shocks.

As the Waters are greatly ſunk here ſince Monday, and there is no more Appearance of Ice, they have begun to repair thoſe Parts of the Bridges over the different Branches of the Danube near this City, that have been carried away by the Ice, and the Rapidity of the Current; ſo that in a few Days our Communication on that Side will be again open.

Dreſden, March 6. Yeſterday having been the Elector's Name-Day, there was a very ſplendid Gala at this Court. The whole Electoral Family dined under a Canopy of State, waited upon by the Principal Officers of the Electorate, as has been practiſed theſe three Years paſt on like Occaſions; and in the Evening there was a numerous Drawing-Room in the grand Apartments of the Palace. Some Promotions were likewiſe made, the moſt conſiderable of which was that of Chevalier Henry Bruhl, third Son to the late Miniſter of that Name, who was declared Adjutant General to the Elector.

By the laſt Letters from Vienna, we are informed, that an Earthquake happened there on the 27th of laſt Month, and that ſeveral Bridges on the Danube and Moldau were demoliſhed by the great Bodies of Ice impetuouſly ruſhing down thoſe Rivers. The Bridge of this Capital was obſerved to tremble from the ſame Cauſe; but by the Goodneſs of its Architecture it withſtood the Concuſſion. On the ſame Day a ſlight Shock of an Earthquake was felt at Biſchoffswerder, on the Confines of Luſatia, and in the Neighbourhood of Freyberg; likewiſe on the Day abovementioned ſeveral new Openings and large Rents were diſcovered towards the Declivities and about the Feet of thoſe Mountains, without, however, any previous ſenſible Motion of the Earth.

Whitehall Council Office, March 21, 1768.

HIS Majeſty having cauſed the Cuſtody of the Privy Seal to be re-delivered to the Right Honourable William Earl of Chatham, a Council was this Day held at his Lordſhip's Houſe at Hayes, when the Oath of Keeper of the Privy Seal was adminiſtred to his Lordſhip.

St. James's, March 22.

The King has been pleaſed to appoint Mr. Lewis De Viſme to be Secretary to His Majeſty's Extraordinary Embaſſy to the Empreſs of Ruſſia.
